Re.: Commendation of work done on MECHEM website

Dear Rosika,

I speak for everyone at MECHEM when I say that you have given our website a remarkable facelift and one that we are truly proud of. A company's website is a reflection of its values and now we are in a position to put our site out in the global information super-highway as banner for the difference that MECHEM makes in the world.

We owe this advertising confidence to you and your vision and would commend your work to any company with the greatest regard and urge you to change the face of South African business; one website at a time.

Yours faithfully,

A handwritten signature in blue ink, appearing to read "Henry Abrahams", is written over a blue circular stamp or seal.
